Holocaust Museum Houston (HMH) is dedicated to educating people about the Holocaust, remembering the 6 million Jews and other innocent victims and honoring the survivors' legacy. Using the lessons of the Holocaust and other genocides, we teach the dangers of hatred, prejudice and apathy.

As the fourth largest Holocaust museum in the country, HMH provides a unique experience for guests. In addition to world-class exhibits and cutting-edge galleries, the L.E.E.D. certified 57,000 square-foot facility features state-of-the-art classrooms, reception areas, a theater, and an amphitheater for events and meetings.

Holocaust Museum Houston's rental packages allow for unique customization to make your event a success. HMH is proud to offer the following add-on benefits to all rental packages:

- Private, docent-led tours are available for groups
- Exclusive curator-led tour of artifacts' vault
- Museum representative to speak to your group during your event
- Museum Membership discounts available for event guests
- Opportunity to incorporate event favors and/or takeaways from the HMH Store carefully selected by HMH staff for both children and/or adult guests
- In lieu of event favors, a donation on behalf of your guests may be incorporated as well

RENTAL OVERVIEW

Events at the Museum

Holocaust Museum Houston is foremost considered to be a place of respect and remembrance. The following policies are guided by the Museum's mission, the need to ensure the safety of its exhibits, care of the building and its high standards of hospitality. Holocaust Museum Houston invites you to host meetings and events at the Museum. However, political or fundraising events for organizations other than HMH are not permitted. Holocaust Museum Houston reserves the right to refuse rentals based on availability, safety or inappropriateness of the proposed event as it pertains to the Museum's mission.

Event Hours

Holocaust Museum Houston is available for rental seven days a week. However, in observance of Shabbat, the Museum does not host events on Friday evenings. Events in the exhibit areas and/or Albert and Ethel Herzstein Theater cannot begin until 5:00 p.m. when the Museum closes to the public unless special accommodations have previously been arranged. All events must conclude by 10:00 p.m. Events held on weekends and holidays will incur a surcharge of $100 per hour to cover overtime expenses.

Exhibit Areas

Please note we do not allow any photography, videography, food and/or beverages in any of the exhibit areas and the Albert and Ethel Herzstein Theater. Food and/or beverages are only allowed on designated areas approved by HMH staff.

Reserving an Event Space

Interested parties may submit a request online at hmh.org or contact Holocaust Museum Houston to discuss date(s) and spaces. Upon mutual agreement, the Museum will provide a Facility Rental Agreement to the Event Host. An event is not considered confirmed until the Museum has received the following:

- Facility Rental Agreement is completed and signed by both parties
- 25% non-refundable deposit of rental fee
- Certificate of Insurance

Facility Payments

Payments are accepted via major credit card and/or check. Credit card payments may be submitted online at hmh.org or by emailing us at events@hmh.org. Checks should be made payable to Holocaust Museum Houston and mailed to the address below:

Holocaust Museum Houston
Accounting Department (Event Rentals)
5401 Caroline Street
Houston, TX 77004

Event Balance / Cancellations

Event host must pay a 25% non-refundable deposit to confirm event rental. The remaining balance is due 30 days prior to the scheduled event. Any fees incurred during the event will be billed promptly after the event and will be due within 15 days upon receiving the invoice. Event Host may cancel reservation no less than 30 days prior to the scheduled event without further payment of balance. If a cancellation is made less than 30 days prior to the scheduled event, Event Host must pay the full balance. All cancellations must be in writing. Holocaust Museum Houston retains the right to cancel an event at any point should the Event Host fail to comply with any of the terms contained in the Facility Rental Agreement, or due to acts of nature, or special security issues, or other occurrences beyond the control of the Museum. In such instance, the Event Host will be given as much advance notice as possible and any fees paid will be refunded.

Nonprofit Discount

Discounts for nonprofit organizations are available. Please contact Holocaust Museum Houston for a quote.

Certificate of Insurance

To confirm space rental, Event Host must submit a Certificate of Insurance naming Holocaust Museum Houston as an additional insured and demonstrate full liability insurance and property liability insurance in an amount no less than $1 million combined single limits for the duration of the event.

Building Policies

Holocaust Museum Houston is a smoke-free facility. Smoking is not permitted inside the buildings or on the premises, including outside areas such as the amphitheater. The City of Houston Noise Ordinance shall be abided by for any outside activities, playing of music, or any other noisy activities. Firearms, including without limitation handguns, shotguns and rifles (whether concealed or openly carried) are prohibited on the Museum premises and parking areas pursuant to Sections 30.06 and 30.07 of the Texas Penal Code. All large bags, backpacks, briefcases and packages must be checked at the Security Desk. All hand-carried items are subject to inspection.

Catering

Holocaust Museum Houston is pleased to provide excellent in-house catering by Chef Smirnov Catering, who is happy to customize a menu for your event and will work closely with you to ensure your chosen menu is prepared exactly as you wish. Kosher catering is not required. However, out of respect, foods such as certain seafood and pork products cannot be served at the museum. Seafood and shellfish that cannot be served include shrimp, crab, lobster, oysters, catfish, octopus, swordfish, skate, eel, sturgeon and clams such as mussels, abalone and scallops. Animals that cannot be served include rabbit and all pork products including ham and bacon.

Alcohol

Holocaust Museum Houston's in-house caterer, Chef Smirnov Catering carries a liquor license and is approved by the Museum to serve liquor during Event Host's event. Under no circumstances is liquor to be sold by the Event Host during the event. It is illegal to serve alcoholic beverages to anyone under the age of 21 years. It is the responsibility of the Event Host to enforce this regulation.

Open Flame Policy

Open flames are prohibited. Sterno flames associated with catering are permissible but require constant attention. Battery operated candles are allowed.

Event Floor Plans

Holocaust Museum Houston must approve event floor plans at least 3 days prior to the event.

Set-Up

Space rental fee includes 1 hour for set-up. Special arrangements to arrive more than 1 hour prior to event start time must be made with HMM 3 days prior to the event. Each additional hour will incur a $100 fee. Upon arrival for set-up, Event Host must check in with HMM staff. Please note set-up in the exhibit areas and/or Albert and Ethel Herzstein Theater cannot begin until 5:00 p.m. when the Museum closes to the public unless special accommodations have previously been approved.

Electrical Needs

All electrical wires, power cords, or other wires must be taped to floors with gaffers tape provided by the Event Host. No usage shall be permitted that may, in the judgment of Holocaust Museum Houston, overload or otherwise compromise the electrical systems of Holocaust Museum Houston.

Clean-Up

All events must conclude by 10:00 p.m. If additional hours are arranged after 10:00 p.m., an additional fee of $100 per hour will be charged. After the event, before leaving the Museum, the Event Host must perform a walk-through of the rental space with HMM staff. Event Host is responsible for all damage to the Museum and to Holocaust Museum Houston's personal property therein, or to the property of any third person which is on loan to Holocaust Museum Houston, caused by the acts of Event Host or Event Host's agents, servants, employees, or guests, whether accidental or otherwise. Event Host further agrees to leave the premises in the same condition as existed on the date that possession thereof commenced which includes but is not limited to the removal of all trash generated by the event, removal of all furniture, equipment, décor, signage, etc. No overnight storage of décor, signage, and/or equipment is allowed. Holocaust Museum Houston does not provide staff to move tables, chairs, props, electrical/staging equipment, decorations, etc. provided by decorators, caterers and other vendors.

Décor and Signage

All décor and equipment rentals must be made by the Event Host and approved by Holocaust Museum Houston. Decorators, rental equipment companies, and other vendors must arrange arrival times prior to the event. All deliveries must go to the loading dock entrance or an entrance designated by HMM staff. All decorations and signs provided by the Event Host must be freestanding and not interfere or disturb in any manner Museum exhibits or other property. No nails, tacks, unapproved tape or glue may be used on the walls, floors, or other surfaces. The Event Host must receive approval for any equipment/décor hung from any surfaces. If tape is needed, the Museum will provide the appropriate tape for the Museum walls, with sufficient notification of the request. Museum artifacts, exhibits or furnishings may not be moved. The Museum prohibits the following: firearms, live animals, fog, soap bubbles, fireworks, special effects smoke, helium balloons, and open flames. Confetti, bird seeds, rice or other small items may not be thrown inside the Museum. However, flower petals and bird seeds may be thrown outside.

Floral

Flower arrangements and plants must be pest-free and in water only. No dirt will be permitted on the premises. All floral arrangements must arrive and leave the Museum on the same day. No flowers/plants may be left in the Museum overnight.

Parking

Validation tickets for self-parking may be incorporated into your event package. If you would like to rent the parking lot and provide valet services, please see our Preferred Vendors List. The Event Host is entirely responsible for any and all costs and liability associated with valet services shall be the sole responsibility of the Event Host.

Security

Holocaust Museum Houston requires security to be present at all events. During Museum's hours, Holocaust Museum Houston will provide security. Additional security may be requested and/or required at an additional charge during regular Museum hours depending on the size and nature of the event. Security for all after-hours events is mandatory. Security officers are under direct supervision of the Museum and only Museum staff are to give instructions to security personnel. The Event Host and its guests must comply with all security requests. If Event Host, its vendors, featured presenters or guests should have their own additional private security, HMH must be advised in advance of the event and such private security must coordinate with Museum security.

Emergency Situations

In the event of a serious emergency (Fire, Police, Medical), immediately call 911, and notify HMH staff. If for any reason evacuation of the facility becomes necessary, please exit quickly but calmly following the directions of HMH staff in your area. If possible, please take staff and/or guest list and proceed as directed by HMH staff.

Audio & Visual

Any A/V needs must be discussed with Holocaust Museum Houston prior to the event to determine feasibility. Typically, the following are available: podium microphone, lavalier microphones, wireless handheld microphone, DVD/CD, TV, computer/laptop, overhead projector and projector screens. Event Host must save presentations and/or any other electronic documents on a Universal Serial Bus (USB) Drive. An A/V Setup Fee of $75 will be incurred if audio visual equipment setup is required. An A/V Technician Fee of $200 will be incurred if an A/V technician is requested to be on-site for the duration of the event. A refundable deposit of $200 is required for the use of any A/V equipment if not operated by our technician.

Invitations and Printed Materials

All printed and web materials relating to events that reference Holocaust Museum Houston must be submitted to the Museum's Marketing Department for review and approval no less than 72 hours prior to being printed and/or posted online.

Media / Photography / Videography

Per Museum policy, photos and videos may not be taken in the exhibit areas. Photos and videos may be taken in designated rental spaces with pre-approval from HMH staff. All Media inquiries and/or requests should contact HMH for arrangements.

Guest List

In order to provide background information to the museum and security staff, a guest list of the names of all registered attendees must be provided prior to the start of the event. This list will not be used for solicitation.

Preferred Vendors List

Holocaust Museum Houston's Preferred Vendors List includes Valet Services, Floral, Photography and more. Should the Event Host opt to use a non-Museum recommended vendor, the names and contact information of such vendors must be provided to Holocaust Museum Houston prior to the event.
