

Journal Handout

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reflect on the world around you and consider the various issues, challenges, and obstacles we face as a society today. Using the space below, respond to the following questions and brainstorm actions you can take to address these issues.

Is there an issue in the world that you care about or concerns you? Please be specific and elaborate when responding.

Why is this issue important to you personally?

How can you advocate, support, or educate others on this issue? List 3-5 actions you can take to address your concerns within your community and/or in the world.

“Think, Pair, Share” Strategy Instructions

Think:

1. In journals, students will reflect and respond to a set of questions.

Pair:

2. Once the students have completed their journal entries, ask them to select a partner and have them share their responses with each other.

Share:

3. Bring everyone back together and have the whole class share out as a group.
