

HOLOCAUST MUSEUM HOUSTON

STOP HATE. STARTING HERE.

The Warren Fellowship for Future Teachers The Spector/Warren Fellowship for Future Teachers

May 21- 26, 2018

Naomi Kaplan Warren, z"l, was born on September 1, 1920 in Wolkowysk, Poland (today Belarus). She passed away on October 2, 2016, surrounded by generations of her family. Together, through the Spector/Warren and Warren Fellowships, we will continue to celebrate her memory and her generous and loving spirit.

For their support of the Spector/Warren Fellowship, Holocaust Museum Houston thanks the Spector Family and Syracuse University. For their support of the Warren Fellowship for Future Teachers, Holocaust Museum Houston thanks the Naomi and Martin Warren Family Foundation.

Spector/Warren Fellowship Public Lecture with Nancy Patz: "The Elephant with a Knot in His Trunk"

Nancy Patz is an award-winning author and illustrator of children's books, which often address emotionally sensitive topics. In "The Elephant with a Knot in His Trunk," Patz and orthodontist Stuart Sheer tell the story of an elephant born with a disability that keeps him from using his trunk as other elephants do. A graduate of Stanford University, Patz's paintings, prints and drawings have been exhibited in museums and galleries, and she often lectures to school and teachers' groups on her books and the art of the picture book.
